

Washington, DC

– Today, U.S. Rep. John Hall (D-Dover) voted to help earthquake victims

"The images of such severe devastation in Haiti have moved many people to action," said Rep. Hall. "I a

In addition to the immediate tax deduction measure, the House of Representatives will also vote this we

"As a world leader, America is showing an outpouring of support for the victims of the devastating earth

In January of 2005, Congress enacted similar tax provisions for individuals that made charitable contribu

-30-